

Report on online session “Life Skills”

On July 16th 2021, Department of Computer science organised online session on the topic "Life Skills" at 10:00 a.m. through Microsoft Teams platform. Mrs. Sindhu Sandesh welcomed the Head of the Departments, Teaching Faculties and the students for the session briefing an introductory note of the guest of honour welcoming towards the session. 677 students of I , II and III year degree from all stream actively participated in the session.

Mrs. Deepali Shenoy was the resource person for the session, who is the Business Manager for ARIV Education from Karnataka (Mentored by Mr. Mahesh Shetty).

Mrs. Deepali Shenoy spoke about the essentials of life skill in our life. Creative thinking, Decision making, Self Awareness and many key notes to believe in oneself towards success was delivered to the students in an interactive way with some fun activities. There was a interactive Question & Answers session which was connected to the topic of the session.

The session was concluded by gratitude speech delivered by Ms. Sindhu Sandesh, Faculty, Department of Computer Science who thanked the Principal Dr. Parvadhavardhini Gopalakrishna for motivating to conduct such session, thanked the guest of honour Mrs. Deepali Shenoy for conducting a wonderful session and all the participants for participating actively.

