

REPORT OF NSS GUEST TALK “NSS AND COMMUNITY OUTREACH”

The NSS team of The Yenepoya Institute of Arts, Science, Commerce and Management conducted a guest talk on

“NSS and Community outreach”

In association with IQAC on 1st of September 2021, from 2:30-3:30 PM (IST) for NSS volunteers through Google meets with a total number of 85 participants.

The session commenced with an enlightening keynote address given by the Principal of YIASCM, Dr Parvadhavardhini Gopalakrishnan where she gave an insight of the topic. The session continued with student Ms. Priya NSS team leader from II B. Com (CACS) who introduced the guest talk’s eminent speaker Ms. Nelvita Cleona Narhona Assistant Professor, SDM Law College Mangalore

She described The Motto of NSS "Not Me But You", reflects the essence of democratic living and upholds the need for self-less service. NSS helps the student’s development & appreciation to other person's point of view and also show consideration towards other living beings. The philosophy of the NSS is a good doctrine in this motto, which underlines on the belief that the welfare of an individual is ultimately dependent on the welfare of the society as a whole and therefore, the NSS volunteers shall strive for the well-being of the society. She explained the various activities of the NSS like national integration camp, immunization, blood donation, planting trees, disaster management, providing medical facilities to villages. She also suggested the students to take initiate to conduct counselling session in their area to those who suffering in current pandemics and help them to come in normal life. Lastly, the session concluded with a Q&A round, where the students and the speaker discussed various queries and a humble vote of thanks was given by student Ms. Dhanyashree (I B.Sc. Forensic Science).

Overall, the guest talk was extremely informative and interactive which helped students increase their knowledge on Community outreach.
